2009 Facility of the Year Awards (FOYA) Winners Announced

Six pharmaceutical manufacturing facilities constructed by companies located in Belgium, India, Ireland, Germany, and Switzerland have been selected as Category Winners in the fifth annual Facility of the Year Awards program sponsored by ISPE, INTERPHEX, and Pharmaceutical Processing magazine.

The companies and respective award categories include:

- Aseptic Technologies, located in Gembloux, Belgium, winner of the Facility of the Year Award for Equipment Innovation.
- Centocor Biologics Ireland, located in Ringaskiddy, Cork, Ireland, winner of the Facility of the Year Award for Sustainability.
- Centocor R&D Schaffhausen, located in Schaffhausen, Switzerland, winner of the Facility of the Year Award for Facility Integration.
- Hameln Pharma, located in Hameln, Germany, winner of the Facility of the Year Award for Operational Excellence.
- Orchid Chemicals & Pharmaceuticals, located in Aurangabad, India, winner of the Facility of the Year Award for Regional Excellence.
- Roche Pharma Biotech Production Basel, located in Basel, Switzerland, winner of the Facility of the Year Award for Project Execution.

In addition, GlaxoSmithKline Manufacturing was awarded an Honorable Mention for the company's project in Verona, Italy.

The Facility of the Year Awards (FOYA) program recognizes state-of-the-art pharmaceutical manufacturing projects that utilize new and innovative technologies to enhance the delivery of a quality project, as well as reduce the cost of producing high-quality medicines. Now in its fifth year, the awards program effectively spotlights the accomplishments, shared commitment, and dedication of individuals in companies worldwide to innovate and advance pharmaceutical manufacturing technology for the benefit of all global consumers.

"We were truly impressed with the quality of this year's submissions, as well as the depth and breadth of each organization's innovative solutions for pharmaceutical manufacturing challenges," said Robert P. Best, ISPE President and CEO. "It seems that each year the best and brightest minds in the industry raise the bar for quality, creativity, and ingenuity...which will ultimately benefit people worldwide," said Best.

The Facility of the Year Awards program is truly global, as submissions over the past five years have been received from more than 20 different countries and territories. Each of the submissions was reviewed by an independent, blue-ribbon judging panel of global representatives from the pharmaceutical design, construction, and manufacturing sectors.

2009 Facility of the Year Events

There will be several opportunities to meet the 2009 Facility of the Year Award Winners and learn first-hand about the facilities being honored as "best in their class." These events include:

- INTERPHEX2009— Meet the Category Award Winners at the Facility of the Year Awards Display Area at booth number 1059, Level 3 of the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center. This is your opportunity to meet personally with representatives from companies of the Category Winners to discuss the success stories associated with these pharmaceutical manufacturing facilities.
- ISPE 2009 Annual Meeting — Learn first-hand who the Overall Winner of the coveted 2009 Facility of the Year Award is during ISPE's 2009 Annual Meeting, 8-11 November in San Diego, California, USA. For more information, visit www.ISPE.org.

At each event, a Facility of the Year Awards display will feature the 2009 Category Award Winners. Additionally, comprehensive coverage and publicity will be conducted by ISPE and Pharmaceutical Engineering magazine, INTERPHEX, and Pharmaceutical Processing magazine.

Visit www.facilityoftheyear.org for more information about the awards program and detailed information about each Category Winner's project participants.
